Фінансується
Європейським Союзом

NGO “Network of Civil Society Organisations Supporting Internally Displaced Persons in Ukraine”

Agenda

Presentation of the research findings “Socio-economic situation and current needs of internally displaced persons in Vinnytsia Oblast”

Date

12 November 2026, 10:00–13:00

Venue

Vinnytsia, Optima conference hall

Subject

Presentation of the research findings “Socio-economic situation and current needs of internally displaced persons in Vinnytsia Oblast”

Purpose – to present the research findings on the situation and needs of internally displaced persons in Vinnytsia Oblast, discuss the barriers identified and recommendations on housing, employment, access to services and integration into communities, and identify opportunities for putting the recommendations into practice with the participation of IDPs themselves and the responsible institutions.

Agenda

12 November (Thursday)

09:30–10:00 Participant registration

10:00–10:15 Welcome remarks:

- Alona Tanasiichuk, Head of the NGO "Network of Civil Society Organisations Supporting Internally Displaced Persons in Ukraine"
- Olena Davlikanova, Project Coordinator, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung Representation in Ukraine
- Svitlana Yarmolenko, Director of the Department of Social and Youth Policy of the Vinnytsia Oblast Military Administration.

10:15–10:30

- Presentation of the key research findings.
  Alona Tanasiichuk, Doctor of Economics, Professor, author of the analytical report.

10:30–10:45

- From recommendations to practical action. "Regional priorities and the current needs of newly arrived IDPs"
  Svitlana Yarmolenko, Director of the Department of Social and Youth Policy of the Vinnytsia Oblast Military Administration.

10:45–11:00

- Questions and discussion of the research findings

11:00–11:15

- The voices of IDPs and self-organised communities. What changes are needed first.
  Olena Vertosenko, Head of the NGO "We Are from Kharkiv"; Head of the NGO "Kherson Is Ukraine"; leaders of other associations.

11:15–11:30

- The needs of newly arrived IDPs and displaced persons in small and rural communities.
  Representatives of IDPs and communities; discussion.

11:30–11:45

- Housing stability: opportunities for long-term solutions.
  Representative responsible for housing at the regional or local authority; questions from participants.

11:45–12:00

- Employment and income: job placement, retraining and self-employment for IDPs.
  Employment service representative; discussion

12:00–12:15

- Access to social services and care services.
  Representative of social protection authorities or a social service provider; discussion

12:15–12:30

- Medical and psychosocial support: how to bring assistance closer to people.
  Representative of the relevant institution or organisation; discussion

12:30–12:45

- From recommendations to local solutions.
  Representatives of the IDP Council and regional and local authorities: using the research findings in community programmes

12:45–13:00

- Conclusions. Consolidating proposals, identifying next steps and providing information on access to the report
  Representative of social protection authorities or a social service provider; discussion

13:00–13:30

- Informal networking. Coffee and sandwiches.
  Exchange of contacts and individual comments

Moderator

Alona Tanasiichuk,
Head of the NGO “Network of Civil Society Organisations Supporting Internally Displaced Persons in Ukraine”